

TWO KILLED AND SCORE HURT IN MINE EXPLOSION

Nine Hundred Other Employees Escape Injury

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—A thunderous report a fleeting ball of fire, followed by clouds of smoke and two men were dead and a score injured.

It was the first fatal explosion in Mine No. 1, of the Chicago, Wilmington & Franklin Coal Co., near here, which holds the world's record for eight hour production, but approximately 900 other men working in the colliery at the time of the blast today escaped without suffering even a scratch.

Grizzled miners and officials of the company agreed that the escape of so many men was remarkable—aged miners described it as a miracle, that's all there is to it.

The dead: Harry Odle, 23 years old; I. B. Hamilton, 20.

The seriously injured: Kasper Sharpa, 34; Frank Waite, 37; Larmal Lucet, 28; Steve Padboa, 28; Ralph Sweet, 16; Mike Yerze, age unknown; Ben Leinch, 36; Joe Skok, 42; Paul Babratano, 27; Pete Langston, 25; O. Cilio, 62; George Kirichskim, 36.

Eight others were injured, less seriously. All were burned, chiefly about the face and hands.

The exact cause of the explosion probably never will be known it was said. Mine officials expressed the belief that a gas pocket formed at the ceiling and that a miner's torch ignited it. The blast occurred about a mile a quarter from the shaft. It was purely local, in a room that is about, worked out. Mine officials said the colliery would operate tomorrow as no damage was done. The officials directed attention to the fact that this system of working in rooms or panels, is what saved the hundreds of men in other parts of the mine.

On March 25, 1922, the mine established a world's record by producing 8,218 tons of coal in eight hours.

Four rescue teams were at the colliery shortly after the blast occurred.

The couple obtained a marriage license here Saturday and were married within three blocks of the campus.

CONGRESS BEGINNING PLANS FOR NEW LAWS FOR COMING SESSION

Progressives Oppose Tax Program Proposed by Mellon

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Opposition of the Progressives to the organization plans of Republican leaders in the house and senate began today to take more definite form. Likewise there was increasing evidence that the Progressives and many Democrats are determined that any tax revision at the coming session shall depart materially from the program suggested by Secretary Mellon.

Senate Progressives have left Senator Cummins know that he will have their support for reelection as president protem if he will relinquish the chairmanship of the interstate commerce commission, which would place Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, a leader of their group, in position to succeed to the chairmanship under seniority rule. At the same time, however, Senator Cummins has been advised by some of the regular organization leaders that they would prefer that he retain the chairmanship and leave the way open for election of Senator Curtis as president protem.

Wants Two Jobs.

Meantime Senator Cummins is undecided what he will do.

Some of his friends say he still is hopeful that the way can be opened for him to hold both places but there appears to be a general determination among leaders of both elements within his party that he can have only one. He has been asked to make up his mind before the Republican conference next Saturday, the call for which was discussed today by Senator Lodge, the Republican leader.

In their legislative discussions today, the house progressives went on record against the Mellon tax plan as such. In a formal statement, which Representative Nelson said had been approved unanimously they said they found "nothing in the Mellon plan which tends to stimulate legitimate business or reduce the cost of living."

"A taxation plan will be proposed," the statement said, "that will reduce the tax burden on small taxpayers more than is contemplated by the Mellon plan and further providing sufficient funds from those best able to pay to make good any treasury deficit occasioned by passage of the soldiers' compensation bill. Legislation under consideration calculated to benefit the country as a whole and not special interests will be submitted for consideration at the beginning of the session."

Revision along the lines suggested by the house progressives is being considered both by senate progressives and some of the Democratic senators. Among members of both houses there is talk of a modified excess profits tax, attack on the undivided profits of corporations and increased inheritance taxes.

Bonus Sentiment Grows.

Sentiment in favor of both a reduction of taxes and enactment of the soldiers' bonus continued to grow today at both ends of the capitol. Senator Robinson of Arkansas the Democratic leader declared that congress will not be stampeded by the very great influences at work to make it appear that partial relief from existing tax burdens can be accomplished only by denying just and generous treatment to former service men.

Senator Howell, Republican, Nebraska, said he did not regard tax reduction and the passage of the bonus as irreconcilable. He also said he will favor railroad legislation which will do away with the minimum rate provisions of the transportation act and also measures for the relief of the farmers.

CHICAGO SUES TO RECOVER LARGE SUM

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A former city official, codefendant with former Mayor William Hale Thompson in a suit brought by the Chicago Tribune, was declared today by Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch to have "unlawfully contracted with three real-estate experts to paw for their services on the percentage basis."

The answer for the city is believed to prepare the way for an immediate trial of the suit. The Tribune has brought suit against Messrs. Thompson and Faherty, G. F. Harding, former city controller and three real-estate experts, F. H. Lyons, E. C. Waller, Jr., and A. S. Merigold. The plaintiff asks a court award of $1,738,078 alleged paid to the experts and to restrain the further payment of $309,000. Mr. Faherty was former president of the board of local improvements.

SECRET SERVICE TRACE GANG OF COUNTERFEITERS

Posing as Students Crooks Bet Bogus Money on Games

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 26.—Youths posing as students and offering to bet $10 bills on college games have aided in the distribution of counterfeit ten dollar notes such as were found in the possession of a woman held here under the name of Mrs. Mary Snyder and passed at Peoria, Illinois, it was announced here today by federal secret service agents.

Many of these bills the federal agents said had been placed as bets on the Michigan-Wisconsin football game, no preference being shown by the pseudo-students in placing their bets against the genuine money of the team's followers.

Since the arrest of Mary Snyder, federal agents have been looking all over the United States for her associates. She is said to have admitted that Homer Sweeney held in Peoria, Ill., was her husband, but beyond that, the federal agents assert, the woman has declined to give any details of her past.

Investigation had led them to the belief that the "ring" is represented in nearly every state. Bill passed recently in Peoria are said to be of the same kind as found on Mary Snyder. A man who gave his name as Harry Toback was arrested here yesterday after he had given a drugist a counterfeit bill.

The bills are said to be good imitations of federal reserve $10 bills, bearing the image of Andrew Jackson.

MANY SUGGESTIONS FOR WAR PREVENTION

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Wide interest was displayed in response to the Chicago Daily News' contest inaugurated a month ago for "suggestions bearing upon a practical plan whereby the United States may co-operate with other nations for the prevention of war."

Dr. Charles Thwing, president emeritus of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, was awarded first prize of $250. Brigadier General Von Horn Moseley, U. S. A., Port Sherman, Illinois, second prize of $200 and former Judge Gaetano Noale, Genoa, Italy, third prize of $100.

Many suggestions urged United States participation in the league of nations and world court; many took strong religious view that only Divine Power could be relied upon, a surprisingly large number took the view that the United States by physical and financial power should force its peace view upon the world; many favored an Anglo-Saxon union or combination, while many urged educational methods.

CRUSHED TO DEATH AFTER ROBBING CAR

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Nov. 26.—Herbert Wall, alias John E. Meyers, who was crushed to death between baggage coaches on the Wabash train here yesterday and whom the police charged with many freight robberies was killed after he had looted one of the cars of the train on which he was "stealing" a ride, according to a statement made today by agents of an express company who investigated Wall's death.

AUTOMOBILE SLAYER BEGINS ON SENTENCE

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—David S. Groh, head of a detective agency who was convicted a year ago on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the killing of a policeman with his automobile, surrendered to the sheriff here today after a certified copy of a supreme court mandate denying him rehearing and ordering him taken into custody was received. Less than an hour later he was started for the penitentiary at Joliet to serve an indeterminate sentence of from one year to life.

Mrs. Montayne several years ago instituted two breach of promise suits against Major Sherman, seeking $75,000, but lost both suits.

United States Seizes British Rum Schooner

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The rum schooner Tomako, captured by coast guards yesterday after an exciting chase six miles off Seabright, N. J., while flying the British flag, was seized with the knowledge that her registry papers were faulty and that she positively had been identified with the landing of liquor on American shores, government agents announced today.

"Rummy" Bill McCoy, rum smuggling king, John Brophy, his skipper and the seven members of the Tomako's crew were arraigned before a federal commissioner here charged with illegally transporting liquor into the United States. They were released in $5,000 bail each.

The Tomako originally was the American Schooner Arcthusa and under this name she appeared in January, 1921, the first rum carrier of the American dry era. Her shining white sides and yellow sticks have been sought by government lookouts along the entire Atlantic Coast line since that time, for she was known as the most adventurous rummer on the business. She is charged with having carried rum to all points along the coast from Portland to Florida.

Many conflicting reports of details of the capture of the Tomako were heard at different government offices. Assistant Collector of the Port Barnes said the official report of the coast guards declared that Lieutenant L. W. Perkins the boarding officer had been threatened with machine guns which then were turned on the coast guard cutter Seneca and Lexington. This it was said, came after Lieutenant Perkins had been put aboard the schooner to bring her to shore and McCoy had given orders to run to sea. Another report had it that a machine gun and an automatic rifle were displayed but not fired.

McCoy denied that fire arms were on board, or that there ever had been on his ships, altho, coast guard officers reported that the Tomako had fired on government boats in other chases.

"Why, I'd be a fool to permit any shooting at a government boat, wouldn't I?" said McCoy. "My idea all along has been to operate within the law which to me means, outside the three mile limit without any display of arms. When I had the Marshal the crew were a bunch of bad men and the captain was a cheater. If they had conducted themselves properly there wouldn't be any indictments against me."

"I've got a bully good crew now and it can't be said that the Tomako isn't a good rum ship, minding her own business and treating everybody right. I've been on the sea all my life, ever since I left my home in Syracuse to go in training for the sea on the old training ship Saratoga."

"My buddy on the Saratoga was Herbert Hartley, now skipper of the Leviathan. Both of us went into the merchant marine at the same time and we were mates at 21 on good ships. And I guess both of us have made our mark. Hartley is skipper of the biggest ship afloat and I'm king of the bootleggers."

McCoy said his present American home was in Daytona, Fla., and his business home in Nassau in the Bahamas.

SPEAKERS DENOUNCE OPPONENTS OF ANTI KLAN LEGISLATION

Bills Governing Secret Organizations Meet With Defeat

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 26.—Opponents of anti-Klax Klan legislation scored victories in both houses of the Oklahoma legislature today, bringing bitter denunciations of their methods from the presiding officer in each branch of the assembly.

Senator Tom Anglin, president pro tem of the senate threw that body into an uproar just before adjournment after hours of not-nomous debate when he fiercely assailed the members for what he termed their obstructive and destructive tactics. The president's speech was directed at Senator W. M. Gulager of Muskogee, whom he asked:

"Why don't you vote for something constructive instead of voting against everything?"

Gulager replied heatedly, declaring that his actions were the will of his constituents.

In the lower house a few minutes before Speaker W. D. McBee, accused by former Governor J. C. Walton of being a member of the Klan, threatened to "break with every man in the legislature" unless adequate Klan legislation is passed. He referred to talk that anti-Klan laws are "Walton measures" branding is as absurd and declaring that "satisfactory Klan legislation must go thru."

Consideration Blocked.

The controversy which was extending to the lower house today for the first time was short lived, those arrayed against proposed statutes to regulate secret organizations effectually blocking consideration of such legislation by forcing adjournment until tomorrow over the vigorous protests of its supporters.

Their sympathizers in the senate, meanwhile, definitely killed a proposal to reveal the complete membership of secret orders in the state by voting 19 to 13 against an amendment which would have placed the question in the committee bill under discussion a clause compelling officers of such organizations to produce their rosters upon court orders.

With the senate action disappeared the hopes of sponsors of the measure for an act adequate to regulate the operations of secret organizations in Oklahoma. The senate bill as it now stands however, would require officers of all secret orders to register their names and addresses in every county in the state.

IOWAN WINNER IN INTERSTATE HUSKING MATCH

Defeats Illinois Champion of Ipava in Short Contest

DES MOINES, Nov. 24.—John Rickelman of Mount Hamill, Iowa today won what is said to be the first interstate husking contest ever held in the United States when he defeated H. D. Paul, of Ipava, Illinois in a husking match on a farm near here.

After deductions and corrections in the totals were made by L. D. Burnett, of Iowa State college, umpire of the contest, Rickelman was credited with having husked 44.6 bushels of corn in two hours and twenty minutes, while Paul was credited with 40.5 bushels in the same time.

Paul's total suffered a deduction for the 62 pounds of corn he missed in the field he husked while Rickelman's deductions for such "cleanings" were on 22 pounds of corn left in the field. Deductions for failure to remove all husks were negligible.

Neither man made a high record as compared with some corn husking marks, for the yield in the field was only about 50 bushels to the acre and the ears were small and there was some down corn. Rickelman won the right to compete for Iowa in the interstate contest when he won the Iowa State contest here Saturday.

Paul was selected to compete for Illinois because he had a mark of 235 bushels in ten hours, altho no actual contest was held in Illinois.

Sponsors of today's contest hope to make it an annual event and to include more states in the competition in future contests. The rules under which today's match was conducted were made by a committee which included experts from the Agronomy Department of Iowa State college, and they have been adopted as the official rules for husking matches which have been held by counties over Iowa this fall.

Rickelman is 28 years old. He lives on a farm in Lee county. Paul is 22.

BELIEVE WOMAN WAS VICTIM OF MURDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—After a day's investigation police believed tonight the unidentified woman found under the wheels of an automobile which went into a ditch near Hillside, Illinois, was a victim of a murder and not an accident as was at first believed. Roy Wilcox of Oak Park, driver of the car in which were five other persons, said he was blinded by the headlights of another automobile and swerved into the ditch. As he crawled from his car he found the body of a woman beneath the wheels. Late developments, police said, caused them to believe the woman was murdered elsewhere and thrown into the ditch.

SAVE YOUR STAMPS TO KINDLE FIRES

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A letter in an envelope a foot long and six inches wide with the envelope pasted red with stamps aggregating 6,144,551.010 German marks and addressed to a man in Kolze, Illinois, was received by the Chicago postoffice today. The stamps represented 10 cents in American money.

While the stamps represented a dime when the letter was posted, when the missive was received 10 cents would have purchased about 77,000,000,000 marks and the marks in the envelope had declined until they were worth about eight one thousandth of a cent.

He was manager of Taft's campaign for the nomination in 1908 and later managed the Republican campaign of that year. He was chairman of the party's national committee in 1908-9.

He assumed command of the campaign of Charles E. Hughes for the Republican nomination in 1916 and the same year was a member of the Republican national advisory committee.

Is Found Shot Thru Head
Near University
Section

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—After more than 24 hours of investigation, the police admitted tonight that they were without a single motive for the slaying early Sunday of Freeman L. Tracy, 23, former University student and lately employed as an electrician. STATE REJECTS BIDS ON CEMENT FOR NEXT YEAR

Authorities Say Raise of Ten Cents Not Justified

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Bids on practically four million barrels of cement were rejected this afternoon by the department of public works and buildings of the State of Illinois because the price f. o. b. the various county seats were five to ten cents a barrel higher than paid by the state in the 1923 construction program. New bids were asked for December 10.

After receiving the bids of the various companies, Colonel C. R. Miller, director of the department Clifford Older, chief highway engineer and Frank E. Sheets, superintendent of the highways held a conference and issued the following statement:

"We have decided to reject the bids for cement for the 1924 construction received today because in our opinion these prices are not justified by the present economic conditions. The price of labor has remained stable and the price of coal which enters largely into the production cost of cement has been on a steady decline. There is nothing to warrant this increased price. Also the prices quoted by the different companies f. o. b. the various county seats in the state show a marked uniformity. The department has adopted a policy of storing at the railroad sidings nearest to all the work under contract large quantities of cement and other materials in winter and early spring months in order to spread the burden of producing and transporting these materials over the entire year instead of over a few months as in the past. This practice has enabled the cement and other material producers to operate their plants almost continuously throughout the year with a resulting larger output and a reduction in overhead cost.

"We are convinced that this practice on the part of the state as well as the general economic conditions justifies a material reduction below the price level of 1923 rather than an increase."

WHEAT POOL BEING FORMED BY KANSANS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—A tentative contract for the proposed Kansas wheat pool was drawn up and a final organization committee selected here today by the preliminary contract and organization committee of the Kansas Co-operative Wheat Marketing association.

Fifty representative Kansas farmers, bankers and newspapermen were selected to serve on the final organization committee. They will meet in two weeks at Topeka, where definite organization plans will be completed and the contract submitted for approval.

A THOUGHT

Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another that ye may be healed.—Jas. 5:16.

We easily forget those faults which are known only to ourselves.—La Rochefoucauld.

The present time would not be favorable for discussion of a coal tax—that is, the per ton tax to be paid by the producer and in time passed on to the consumer. Even without additional taxes more than half the mines of Illinois are already shut down.

The wheat council suggested an effective measure in advocating reduced acreage. The latest proposal from the same source to help out with the wheat surplus is the slogan "Eat More Toast." That doesn't sound practical and to relieve a situation produced from wheat over-production by toast consumption is a long, long journey.

Jacksonville people are to hear again tonight about the city plan commission and what it is doing in other cities. Like other good things, city plan work will cost some money and there is no other way to provide this money than thru popular subscription. Money put into the city plan work can properly be counted an investment and not a contribution.

Jacksonville has been getting a wonderful lot of publicity in recent months from favorable articles in many widely read publications. The next task for citizens is to capitalize some of this publicity by increasing the number of business enterprises here and the population. More industries with more employees constitute Jacksonville's greatest need just at this time.

CRIME WAVES

The seasonal "crime wave" is sweeping over the country again. City after city reports an alarming increase in the number of holdups, burglaries and other deeds of violence. Always this increase comes with the approach of winter, though it is worse some winters than others. And always an observing citizen can analyze the situation and draw at least one constructive conclusion.

That conclusion is that the chief cause of these crime waves, or at least the chief thing making them possible, is the widespread distribution of firearms. Robberies are nearly always committed with pistols, and the pistols are nearly always easily obtainable. If the thug population actual and potential could be disarmed and kept disarmed, there would be no more crime waves.

Granted, it may be an impossible task to confiscate the "guns" now in dangerous hands and to stop a contraband traffic in such weapons. But it is not impossible to censor the manufacture and distribution of revolvers and automatic pistols, through uniform state action or, better yet, by federal action. A still more effective control might be attained by regulating the distribution of cartridges.

JAIL NEWS

How would you like to live in a city entirely enclosed in glass walls and glass roof—like a gigantic florist's greenhouse? Architects, engineers and health authorities are beginning to discuss this subject seriously.

Many novel advantages are claimed for the scheme. First of all, the glass-enclosed city would be smokeless, for all chimneys would go up through the roof. This roof would keep heat inside Glasstown, and a summer temperature could be maintained in the coldest climate. Naturally, cost of heating homes and so on would be less. It's even claimed that the coal saving would pay interest charges and provide sinking fund for the original cost of putting the city under glass.

On the streets and yards inside the glass-enclosed city, there'd be vegetable life to purify the air. Furthermore the air would be constantly replenished by mighty ventilating fans and periodically purified by artificial rain from roof "shower baths."

No one as yet has figured out how to dispose of the poison gas from auto exhaust.

An area of half a square mile could be enclosed in glass, for about 17 million dollars for each 100 feet height, according to builders. This is enough space to house 65,000 people in large apartment houses or 15,000 in two and three-story houses.

The glass-enclosed idea is suggested mainly for the shopping sections of cities, though some enthusiasts would extend it into the residential districts. Nearly every city has the idea worked out in miniature, in an "arcade."

These plans to remodel the jail undoubtedly would interest the prisoners.

FUNERALS

The funeral of James Russell Hall was held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Central Christian church, in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius. Hundreds of friends of the young man who met his death in a traffic collision in California, were in attendance at the services. Music was furnished by a quartet consisting of Miss Nell Self, Miss Fern Haigh, C. L. Matthis and W. W. Gillham, with Miss Ruth Bradley at the organ.

In the course of the service the minister made appropriate reference to the deceased, a young man whose life and spirit gave him the good opinion of all those with whom he came in contact.

The many beautiful floral tributes were cared for by the Misses Maurine Bradley, Catherine Gustafson, Virginia Cummings, Tonette Cully and Helen Harney.

The bearers were Ernest Olds, Russell Cummings, Martin Graff, Earl Hoover, Allen Smith and Russel Hughes. Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who have the deep sympathy of their many friends here, are making plans to return to this city to live. Mr. Hall will leave today for California to complete preparations for the move. The older sons have resigned their positions in the west and are planning to accompany their parents back to Jacksonville.

CHAMINADE CLUB

The Chaminaide Music Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred O. Ranson on Jordan street. There was a good attendance of members and an excellent program representing the "Picture in Music" was rendered as follows:

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

THE OLD BEAU

BY BERTON BRALEY

How sad is the gay dog of fifty,
The bird with the much-rov'ing eye,
Who dolls up exceedingly nifty
And ogles the girls going by.
He loiters where Youth on parade it;
Oh what can be worse than the bore
Who once was a Wow with the ladies,
But isn't a Wow any more?

I'm making no comments adverse on
The old boy whose tresses are gray
But who, though a middle-aged person,
Is merry and jolly and gay;
The butt of this bitter tirade is
The goof—there are samples galore—
Who once was a Wow with the ladies,
But isn't a wow any more.

THE airs that in youngsters are charming,
In him are a subject for jest;
His loers and his winks are alarming,
In fact he's a terrible pest;
How tragic this once polished blade is,
This Has-been whom naught can restore,
Who once was a Wow with the ladies,
But isn't a wow any more.

MISS DOROTHY NASH BRIDE OF ROY SMITH

Former Resident of Morgan County is Bride of Oquawka Man—Wedding Took Place in Monmouth.

Morgan county friends of Miss Dorothy Nash will be interested in learning of her marriage to Roy Smith of Oquawka. The wedding took place in Monmouth Saturday, Nov. 17, and following the ceremony the couple went to Oquawka, where they are to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school and a former resident of Chapin.

The following facts about the marriage are taken from a recent issue of the Oquawka Journal:

Roy Smith and Miss Dorothy Nash sprung a surprise upon their many friends here last Saturday when they went to Monmouth where they were united in marriage at 3 o'clock p. m. at the Christian manse. Rev. L. W. Agee officiating. The ring ceremony was used in the presence of the customary witnesses.

This marriage is the culmination of a courtship which started sometime after Miss Nash came here from her home in Chapin, Ill., about a year ago.

The bride came here a year ago last September to teach the grammar room of the local grade school and through her efficiency in that capacity was returned again this year. She is a charming young lady and her pleasing personality during her stay in Oquawka has won her a host of friends. Now that her marriage to a local boy has occurred Oquawka people will be pleased that she is to become a permanent resident here in the future.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, northeast of town, and was born on a farm near the present farm home of his parents. With the exception of possibly a couple of years he has resided in this vicinity his entire lifetime. Sometime after America became involved in war with Germany Mr. Smith became a soldier for Uncle Sam and was sent to the training camp at Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he rendered valuable service, so much so that he was retained at that post throughout the period of the war. At present he has charge of the Standard Oil company's business at this point and is a young man who is industrious and attends strictly to business. He is highly respected and popular with his acquaintances and associates.

After the ceremony at Monmouth, the couple returned to Oquawka and went to housekeeping at once at the G. H. Campbell residence which the groom had furnished in a very elaborate manner. On Monday evening they were given a rousing charivari, and Mr. Smith treated the company most liberally. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith have a host of friends, all of whom will unite in congratulations and best wishes to them.

LUTZPORT IS NAME OF NEW TOWN

The new town which will be established at a point on the Illinois river opposite Hardin in Calhoun county, will be known as Lutzport. The town which will be at the end of the Chicago & Alton extension to the point indicated, has been named in honor of S. G. Lutz, who is traffic manager and vice-president of the C. & A.

In the past shipments from Calhoun county have been on the river. With the building of the C. & A. extension the greater part of Calhoun products will be taken from Hardin by ferry to Lutzport and sent by C. & A. freight. It is entirely probable that at some later date the business will develop to such an extent that a bridge will be erected and a railroad extension made in Calhoun county.

START CLOSING WEEK OF CHURCH REVIVAL

Forty Already Added to Christian Church in Meeting—Much Interest Last Night.

The last week of the Revival at the Central Christian church began last night under most favorable circumstances with a good sized audience and a fine service. There were three confessions of faith, making forty additions to the church.

The sermon was on "The Book of Life." Mr. Peters presented the Bible in its relationship to human conduct, showing that it is normal in its message and fits into the human constitution. The text was the oft-quoted passage by Paul to Timothy, "All Scripture given by inspiration of God is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction in righteousness, that the Man of God may be complete completely furnished unto every good work."

Mr. Hackleman presented a picture study entitled "The Wise and Foolish Virgins." It was a study in character and was a splendid companionship of the evening sermon. Both dealt with life, and its great problem of character building.

Tomorrow night the sermon will be a chapter study, the 8th Chapter of Acts. The subtitle of this study will be, "How a Politician Got Religion." Mr. Hackleman will give an appropriate art study entitled "The Wise Fool." There will be a baptismal service.

Naturally the entire congregation is beginning to think of the closing Sunday. There will be many interesting features one of which will be a Sunday School or more than 600. There were 529 present last Sunday and without a doubt the number will go considerably beyond 600 next Sunday. The details of a great fellowship service will be announced later.

The money raising campaign last Sunday brought in a considerable sum and it will not be necessary to make any further public solicitation. The Deacons are working on the matter and they hope to be able to announce next Sunday morning the amount has all be raised.

EUGENE READ SPEAKS TO B. B. C. GRADUATES

Tells of Opportunities Awaiting Young People in United States as Land of Milk and Honey.

"The land of milk and honey today is the United States of America," said H. E. Read, president of the Brown system of business colleges, in an address last night before the graduating class of the local Brown's Business College. The speaker was heard by an audience that filled the high school auditorium, and one of the largest classes in the history of the school occupied the platform.

Mr. Read's speech was filled with humor and kept his audience interested from start to finish. He opened his remarks by the statement that all education is more practical today than it used to be and more capable of application to active life. An education is worth nothing unless the information which one has can be used when badly needed. The speaker referred to the members of the graduating class as at the border of the promised land of milk and honey and in a position similar to that of the Israelites when they came out of Egypt three thousand four hundred years ago. Only those who came out of Egypt under twenty years of age, and the two spies who urged the people to enter Canaan, finally did enter the promised land. The same is true today, that only the young will eventually conquer the opportunities and prospects lying ahead.

Giants That Hinder. After describing the report of the spies and their description of the giants, which haunted their imagination, the speaker described some of the giants which hinder young people in the world of business. The first, he said, is the giant of dishonesty. None of us will steal money or put our hands in the till, but we are all guilty of fact dishonesty. The man who lies about his goods in order to sell them at a higher price is as much of a thief as the man who takes ten dollars from the cash drawer. Honesty is not the best policy; if it is a policy at all, it is not honesty. Honesty is a principle and should be regarded as such.

The second giant is laziness. Aside from a physical handicap of some sort, there is as a rule, only one cause for laziness, and that is a dislike of the work one is doing. We are never lazy when we love the work we are doing. The man does not love his work who goes to it in the morning with the idea that he must put in one more day, and at night beats the clock to the door at quitting time.

The third giant is ignorance. Good companions and good books will give any man or woman an education. There is a saying, "Beware of the man of one book." That means that the man who knows one great book is dangerous in an argument. Any man who knows one book and really studies it has an education. You can choose your associates. The only man who is not responsible for the company he keeps is the warden of a jail. A good companion will make you stretch your intellect upward, and is always inspiring the best in your mind and life.

In the fourth place there is a group of giants arising from the emotions, fear, worry and hate. We are learning today thru the scientific study of the glands of the body, how to eliminate these three evils from our lives. As a rule, we fear people we have wronged, worry about things which never happen, and hate people we don't know.

The Plan of Conquest. The speaker concluded his remarks with an outline of the plan of conquest for the land of milk and honey. There is the man who starts with a plan for only the moment, never looking to the long years ahead. The laborer who gets day's wages plans only a day at a time; the man who works by the month thinks only a month ahead. There are others who plan for a year. Some, however, make their plans for a lifetime; these are the captains of industry, the business managers, etc. Most of our young people will not plan, and here their difficulties begin. There is a still higher class of people who plan their life in reference to the conditions which may exist in the world after they are gone.

The president of the class, Roscoe Mawson, made the introductory speech, emphasizing business training. Miss Lois Harney rendered two excellent vocal selections in her usual well rounded voice. The program closed with the presentation of diplomas by the principal of the college, G. C. Claybaugh.

Following is a complete list of the members of the graduating class:

Complete business training course—Mildred Chapman, Helen Clark, Mildred George, Ralph Gillham, Mable Phillips, Cora Vannier.

But the Japanese work had set artists thinking and the blow from photography had started something. Manet, called today the forerunner of Impressionism brought out some work that caused further howling, but woke artists up to the realization that color was an art in itself—that there was art in the psychological impression suggested to the individual thru the eye, that to represent every detail of form was decidedly superfluous. Familiar with form the eye would, if left some use of its imagination, furnish the remaining details of the form that might not be there.

Since Manet, who was turned out of the Salon for his convictions, Whistler and many others have followed these impressionistic discoveries and the lay multitude have gone on howling. The interesting conclusion of it is that like a baby disturbed from its sleep or otherwise made suddenly uncomfortable, we have at last subsided and what the Salon refused the French galleries now show as their modern masterpieces. Whistler's "Mother" is, after all the sweetest of women even "tho" many details were left out and Whistler called the picture an "Arrangement" in Black and Gray. He said the world would not be interested in a picture of his particular mother, therefore he would give it a name that would suit it as a work of Art. In the course of time, however, the public has recognized both the art and the portrayal of a sweet quiet and gentle woman in her declining years, whom any one would be happy to know as his mother.

The painters have kept on making "Arrangements" using things and people and places only as vehicles for their ideas. Monet was one of the impressionists experimenting with divided color, in order to get more light. For example when a color is made up of two colors as green the "Luminists" break up this green and paint little dabs of blue and yellow in its place. These dabs fuse before reaching the eye and greater atmosphere and luminosity is the result. Thus it is that today we have a world of "Impressionists," and "Luminists" and those who believe that color is so much an element in itself that they reduce the form to its lowest terms, and often use no form at all that we are familiar with.

These productions are called, "Abstractions." Teh "Ultra-Moderns" now experimenting with these abstractions save pigment itself is too heavy with which to give the brilliance of things therefore we shall have to express color in terms of light rays themselves, and there are to be instruments upon which we may play stops as in music and produce these colors on the screen. Some proficy that in the near future we shall go to a performance of color as we now go to a performance of music. Does this mean that by and by we shall have no pictures? Probably we have no more cause to worry about this than to fear there will be no more horses because their are aeroplanes.

Of course it is trying to the intelligence when some painter of abstractions paints a "Nude descending the Staircase" and we mistake it for the "Explosion of a Shingle Factory." We do ask to be left on terra firma with something of the familiar to turn back to when we lose our breath, yet the very babies in our kindergartens are learning the emotional meanings of the colors. They are being taught that "yellow" signifies joy and happiness, that red causes a sensation of heat and life and love, that blue means the truth and knowledge and expansion. It is in their work in music that they are learning these color analogies. These colors they play upon the piano, if you please. They are C. E. and G.

But for those who still find satisfaction in the traditional believing that what was good enough for our fathers will do for us, there are a few recipes that will help us in our search for the basic principles of structure and truth in painting.

There are three principles upon which some very good pictures have been composed—they are these: Line, Dark-and-Light, and Color.

By "Line" we mean the Action in the picture. There are directions running thru every picture. These may be curve directions or they may be angular or merely straight. It is interesting to look at pictures from this point of view alone. Sometimes the only direction is in the horizon line, which separates the earth from the sky. Sometimes this line is high making a wide expanse of earth, sometimes it is low as in "Along The Shore." In this picture there are active directions in the clouds which cause a sense of movement. The more action in the lines the more life in the picture. In the choppy water of the Eastport, Maine, picture are a number of rhythmic strokes of the brush in the horizontal curved directions.

"Dark-and-Light" is another point of view in composition. Sometimes there is a large "Major Contrast"—Some large dark spot against much lighter background. Sometimes the picture shows its colors all in a low "Key" with little contrast in the dark and light. Often the composition will be in a "high" key, when all the colors are pitched near the top of the scale. Sometimes all the colors are neither light nor dark but in "Middle Value" in "Low Light" as in the foggy picture of the "Night Watchman." In this picture the paint is put on in the little dabs above referred to which accounts for the openness and atmospheric quality. When the edges are loose as in this we get the foggy appearance.

Color itself has three attributes to take into consideration: Just as in music a tone has its name its pitch and its loudness, so colors have their names, their "Value" as light or dark, their "temper" warm or cool and their "Intensity" or loudness. For example Orange is a "hot" color and its neighbors on each side of the rainbow or spectrum are "warm." Blue is the "cold" color of the rainbow and its neighbors on either side are "cool." All the colors have their loud intensities and their neutral qualities and all "loud" or "soft" and bright and dull.

A picture like the "House of the Singing Winds" uses warm color while the snow picture at the opposite end of the other room is in cool colors. The shadows of these now are blue and blue-violet. Snow or any white may be warm or cool white according to whether it is white mixed with orange or blue and its neighbors. The Indian picture had orange on the faces and in the fire and blues in the shadows. Side by side these colors like blue and orange which are opposite or "complementary" to each other in the spectrum when placed side by side as in the Indian picture and in large areas will cause each other to look more intense, while painted in small dabs within each other they will produce gray.

The little girl in the red blouse is a "loud" intense picture, the fog picture is painted in neutrals and is "soft."

The first office of color is to be "Colorful"—to make full use of the color is the privilege and duty of the painter. But he shall say what he is. "Who shall arbitrate what is color? What I hate." Is it colored photography? Is it the detail of form and story? Is it "Light"? Is it "arrangement"? Some say it is "Meaning," and requires only enough of the form to embody this meaning. Is it "Expression"? Is it "Impression"? Is it "Decoration"? as some declare. Is it poetry?

What would we like to have art be? When Cimabue had one of his early pictures half finished the townspeople begged to see his early pictures half finished the townspeople begged to see it. They could hardly wait for him to finish it. When it was completed they carried it thru the streets to the church so much did it mean to them. What would painting be if it took that place in our lives today? Surely some beauty that had been discovered by the artist in our every-day living. The Italians—the Egyptians—painted and carved what was right at hand. Any crudeness in their ability to execute was not even noticed so happy were the people with the result. To-day our modern masters have learned the most able and clever ways of doing the work—the "craft" of the arts, yet we have been offended and have turned a deaf ear to their discoveries. It gives us nothing to make life happier or more interesting. We do not necessarily want imitation, but we do want and greatly need poetry. It is the duty of the painter to show us how to find beauty that shows sympathetic understanding of our trying every-day experience. That is why we accept imitation—we will accept anything that shows what we understand. But we need to learn how to see that experience on a higher level.

A picture is no more its outward technique nor its imitation of them and people and places than a human being is its outward skin.

A great picture is after all merely a different manifestation of which great human being is the counterpart. Some dynamic that no one can call by name causes that charm and distinction that comes when a human being is original—not because he is "different" but because he is almighty himself at his best. So that we say and do small things greatly we shall produce something universal that all will in time turn to look at and listen to. The picture that has vitality will live, and living will not only amuse but inspire and help.

LOVEJOY MONUMENT WILL BE PRESERVED

Department of Public Works and Buildings Have Taken Over Care and Will Repair Damages Done by Vandals

ALTON, Ill. (A. P.)—Care of the Lovejoy monument, erected in Alton in memory of Elijah P. Lovejoy, pioneer abolitionist, has been assumed by the state department of public works and buildings under an appropriation approved by the 53rd General Assembly.

The monument, which was dedicated Nov. 7, 1897, at a cost of $30,000, was paid for by the state and by citizens of Alton. In the last few years it has needed care badly. During the war vandals took the copper filling from between the slabs of stone. Part of the appropriation will be used for repairs and the rest of it for care of the monument.

With its pedestal, the colossal bronze figure of victory on the monument, is approximately 90 feet high. It was designed by Robert P. Brinckhirst, of St. Louis. The central column, which supports the bronze, is made of solid granite, four and one-half feet in diameter. Four panels on this column bear bronze illustrations of incidents in Lovejoy's life. One bears a reproduction of the old Columbian Press, with which Lovejoy printed the paper by which he expounded his views and another bears a bas relief silhouette of Lovejoy, made from the only existing likeness of him. According to the department of public works and buildings the monument could not be replaced today for less than $75,000. The ground upon which the monument stands is valued at $1,000.

AFTER BREAKING ALL RECORDS, LEVIATHIAN HELD IN QUARANTINE

Captain Says Authorities Show Favoritism to British

New York, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Completing a record-breaking cross-Atlantic run from Cherbourg to New York, the American liner Leviathan today was delayed at quarantine under circumstances which led Captain Hartley to declare government inspectors were showing favoritism to British and other foreign owned passenger ships.

Edward P. Farley, Chairman of the United States shipping board owners of the Leviathan returned from an official mission in Europe on the record voyage which brought the big ship past Ambrose Light last night, five days, seven hours and 20 minutes after she had steamed out of Cherbourg.

An average speed of 24.17 knots an hour was maintained beating by thirteen minutes the 24.11 knots record held by the Cunard liner Mauretania.

Ten hours after she first splashed anchor, a revenue cutter and tugs helped crowd the big craft into quarantine against the tide but during the inspection her bow swung outward again. She docked two hours late with her passengers, including Mr. Farley, late over the delay.

Quarantine inspectors regularly accommodate the Mauretania, Olympic and other big foreign vessels by going outside the anchorage to board them. Captain Hartley declared. He said he saw no reason why a United States liner could not have been boarded in the same manner as are English or other foreign ships.

He indicated he would enter a complaint against the action of the quarantine authorities.

KANGAROO'S BIRTH SECRET SOLVED

Little One is Only About One Inch Long and as Large as a Lead Pencil—Stays in Pouch Seven Months.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A kangaroo at birth weighs about eight or nine grains, is a trifle more than an inch long and not much thicker than an ordinary lead pencil, according to George F. Morse, Jr., of the Chicago Zoological Society.

How the baby kangaroo was born was until recently a mystery to zoologists. Mr. Morse said, because, being a pouch animal, the actual birth was difficult to witness.

"One day I noticed that one of our kangaroos was acting strangely, so I got the head-keeper to put it in a separate room used for the observation of animals," Mr. Morse declared.

"We watched closely for a long time and finally were rewarded by the appearance of a tiny thing not more than an inch long on the tail of the mother kangaroo. It was a baby."

"We secured it and found it weighed about nine grains. It was an inch and one-sixteenth long and not broader than a lead pencil. It was a perfectly formed kangaroo, with the exception of the hind legs, the matured kangaroos' powerful propeller. These developed later as the baby animal grew. The front legs, however, were perfectly formed, and were used by the baby to climb back into the mother's pouch where it remains for a period of seven months."

BLOUSE AND SKIRT AMERICAN COSTUME

Girls of This Country Still Show Preference for Common Sense Garb in Spite of Changing Fashions.

NEW YORK.—(A. P.)—The separate blouse and skirt is the typical costume of the American woman and girl, according to the United Women's Wear League which recently completed a survey of the evolution of American fashions for women.

Fostered by the native conditions of living, the shirtwaist has been the favorite costume in this country from the very beginning of the nation's history and now remains strongest in popular favor, the investigators found.

While foreign style importations have come and gone, the vogue of the blouse and skirt has never waned permanently because American women have found that costume both practical and suited to their type—tall, slim, athletic and active.

Aboard the dress and gown, of French and Italian origin, have held sway and modes of living have declared against the blouse and skirt. European designers every season send to this country new fashions for evening wear but none sends a costume which views with the blouse for the practical necessities of every day American life.

"Somewhere between the dignity of formal dress and the striving for daring that French mannequins exhibit on fashion parade," according to M. Mosson, executive chairman of the league, "there is a place for the costume that expresses the independence of the American girl—the girl you see in illustrations, on the streets, in the shops, this tall, straight, slim, active girl who walks with a swing of her capable shoulders and looks about her with a direct, fearless gaze."

"It is this type of girl who has clung tenaciously to the separate blouse in all its manifestations. She knows that it is becoming, that it is a style out of reach of the dowdy and the dumpty and she has made it her own. Let who will wear the narrow, clinging draperies (she wears them herself in the evening) but she finds the best expression of her personality in the free and easy lines of a modern blouse and skirt. It is her uniform but devoid of all the monotonous implications of the word."

Small gave assurance to Morgan county men that hard road No. 3 south from Jacksonville will be routed by way of Woodson. Some time ago contract for several miles of this road was let and the plan was made for further construction provided that the road should go south to Murrayville without touching Woodson.

Monday a group of Morgan county men went to Springfield an appointment having been made with Gov. Small, and Col. C. R. Miller, State Auditor Andrew Russell, whose boyhood home was in the Woodson neighborhood, first advised the wish of the delegation to have the road route so changed that it will touch Woodson, and the matter was further explained by L. V. Baldwin, County Superintendent of highways, Frank Mawson, J. E. Osborne and G. A. Dunlap, members of the Morgan county board; T. M. Tomlinson and others.

Frank Sheets, chief engineer of the highway department, was present and the whole matter was thoroughly considered. Gov. Small emphasized the thought that the special purpose of the highway department is to build roads on as straight lines as possible in order to hold down construction costs. It was shown after careful consideration of the changes suggested by the Morgan county men that the mileage would not be greatly increased and that a larger number of residents would be served by the Woodson route.

Altho at first indicating that no change would be feasible, Governor Small after a consultation with Col Miller and Mr. Sheets announced to the delegates that the change will be granted provided certain matters of right of way can be satisfactorily adjusted.

The Morgan county men assured the governor that this would be done and also expressed their great appreciation for the favorable action taken.

Among others who attended the conference in addition to those mentioned were Dr. E. L. Hill, County Clerk G. L. Riggs, John E. Henry, William Colton, Joseph Self, Dr. R. R. Jones, Chester Colton and C. J. Sius Wright.

The people of Northminster church Sunday morning in thirty minutes' time raised a total of $1,100 to be used as a church repair fund and to pay a number of small outstanding bills against the church.

It is a custom of the church at the annual Thanksgiving service to make an appeal for funds with which to do such repairing and remodeling as may be needed in the church. The appeal Sunday was for $1,000 and the way in which the congregation responded is very gratifying to the pastor and the church officials.

SHERIFF ARRIVES TO CLAIM PRISONER

Officer and Owner of Stolen Car Come from Colorado to Get Dennis—Were Illinois Residents.

Sheriff L. H. Miller of Adams County Colorado, arrived in the city yesterday and took away his prisoner, Troy Dennis, who is charged with the theft of a car at Brighton, Colo. The machine was recovered by local police after strenuous work and Dennis was captured and admitted his guilt.

Sheriff Miller was accompanied by James Wire, the owner of the car, who is driving it back to Colorado. Both men were highly appreciative of the work of the local officers. Brighton is only twenty miles out of Denver, and the sheriff has much trouble with car thieves who make that city their headquarters.

Both the sheriff and the owner of the stolen car are former Illinois men. Mr. Miller hails from Gilman, and Mr. Wire from near Freeport.

FIND WEAPONS ON NEGROES IN CAFE

Three colored men and one white man were arrested by sheriff's forces early Sunday morning in the Loop Cafe, where they had been in the habit of creating a disturbance for several successive Saturday nights. The proprietor of the establishment asked for protection from the sheriff and two deputies were sent to the restaurant.

G. A. Postley, one of the colored men, resisted and showed fight. He started to draw a weapon, but was handcuffed by the officers and the weapon, which proved to be a dirk with a formidable blade, was taken from him. Carey Wheeler, another of the negroes was found with a gun in his position.

The four men were arraigned before Squire Opperman yesterday morning and each fined $5 and costs on charges of drunkenness. Postley was fined $25 and costs additional for carrying concealed weapons, and Wheeler was fined $10 and costs additional on a minor charge.

HIGH SCHOOL PLANS FOR CARNIVAL STUNTS

The annual High School Carnival is to be given Thursday evening, after the Thanksgiving game in the auditorium of the High School. It has been a custom for a number of years, for the students of the high school to give this carnival, for the benefit of the athletic association, on the evening of Thanksgiving day, and each year it seems to be just a little bit better—more jolly and more entertaining—than any previous one.

Each class puts on a "stunt," which is always very original and very amusing, the stunt of the senior class, the minstrel show, is, of course, the big feature of the evening.

Besides the stunts and other numerous forms of entertainment there will be a great number of booths, where one may buy all sorts of "eats," and other things as well.

LOCAL PASTORS IN SPRINGFIELD MONDAY

Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State Street church and Rev. Walter E. Spoonst pastor of Northminster church were in Springfield yesterday to attend a general council of the Springfield Presbytery to arrange for a program for the midyear inspirational presbytery meeting which will be held December 10 in Springfield.

It was decided to try to secure Dr. William Covert to address the Presbytery on the subject, "Christian Education." Dr. Covert has recently resigned the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church in Chicago to accept the Secretaryship of the Christian Education Board, and the committee are very anxious that he has a place on the Dec. program. Abram G. Bergen, stated clerk of the Presbytery was delegated to arrange the program, along the lines discussed by the committee, and when arrangements are completed, the program will be announced. Besides the representatives mentioned from Jacksonville there were present, the Moderator, Dr. J. T. Knox, of Maroa; Dr. John Thomas, Rev. Walter R. Cremins, Rev. H. M. Hildebrand, Springfield and Abram G. Bergen.

Miss Jane Sullivan a pupil at Rount high school spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan in the Murrayville neighborhood.

JOINT RECITAL HEARD AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh, Violinist, and Miss Olga Sapio, Pianist, Pleased Large Audience Last Night.

Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh, violinist, and Miss Olga Sapio, pianist, the two young women who have for several seasons been winning laurels for themselves in this locality by virtue of their musical prowess, appeared again yesterday evening in their third joint recital for violin and piano in Music hall at Illinois Woman's college.

The recital showed marked growth in the concerted numbers especially. After years of experience in playing together this result is but natural; added to this is the keen personal sympathy of the two, which is reflected in all that they do together, so that this most recent program brought results not previously possible.

The program opened with the wonderful sonata by the "Belgian Badi," Caesar Franck. The whole was played in a finished style and the canon in octave in the final movement, the truly polyphonic, is modern in spirit and grateful to the performers and audience.

Miss Horsbrugh offered as a solo the ever lovely concerto by Mendelssohn and a group of arrangements by Kreisler, after which she played as an encore "Serenade" by Ambrosio.

Miss Sapio's solo numbers were the dramatic sonata in flat minor by Chopin and a group from the ultra-modern school. She responded to the call of her appreciative audience by playing "Caprice" by Arthur Forte.

This joint recital was one of the rare treats that Jacksonville people sometimes have given them. The delighted and satisfied audience of large proportions voiced its appreciation in no uncertain manner. The hold that these young women have on their hearers increases with repeated hearings; it is to be hoped that their offerings may be frequent.

GIRARD TO FOLLOW JACKSONVILLE PLAN

Water Plant Project Will be Financed by City and Citizens—Caldwell Engineering Company Employed.

Girard is to have a water plant similar to the one built here thru the co-operative effort of citizens. The Caldwell Engineering Co. has been engaged to perfect the system and superintend the erection of the plant. Dr. Riffey, who is mayor of Girard, accompanied by members of the city council, came to Jacksonville Monday and spent several hours in the inspection of the Jacksonville plant.

Later in the day they drove to Pittsfield, where a new plant has been erected under the direction of the Caldwell Engineering Co. Girard now has no water system and it is proposed to secure a supply thru an impounding reservoir. The topography of the country adjacent to Girard is such that a reservoir can be built and as Virden and Girard are so near together it is more than likely that the Girard plant will furnish water for Virden. At any rate, a plant of sufficient size for this service will be constructed by the Girard people.

A portion of the cost will be met by the issuance of bonds and the remaining money necessary will be provided by citizens in the way that was done here in Jacksonville.

WILL OF JOHN CHERRY IS FILED FOR PROBATE

Late Resident Leaves Estate to Wife During Her Lifetime—At Her Death to be Divided Equally Between Two Children.

The will of the late John Cherry was filed for probate Monday in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs. The document was drawn Feb. 2, 1917, and the signature was witnessed by Walter Ayers and William T. Wilson. The testator named his wife Mrs. Margaret Cherry as executrix of the will and directed that she shall serve without bond.

After providing for the payment of just debts and funeral expenses, the testator bequeathed all the rest, residue and remainder of his property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and wherever situated, including the proceeds of all life insurance, all couched and bonds, to his wife, Mrs. Margaret Cherry, for and during the term of her natural life, and giving to her full power and authority to sell any part of the property if in her judgement necessary and desirable.

To Mrs. Cherry is also given the right to invest the proceeds, handle, manage and control the property, whether real or personal, as in her sound judgement and discretion shall seem to be for the best interest of the estate. The testator gave to his wife the power to continue any business in which he was engaged at the time of his death, for such time as in her judgement shall be for best interest of the estate, and to that end she may borrow money and make notes binding upon the estate. She may also mortgage any part of the property as in her judgement shall be necessary for the best interest thereof, and shall have power to appoint agents and to revoke any appointments so made. She shall have power to make covenances, with such covenants binding upon the estate, as in her sound discretion shall be for the best interest of said estate.

From this point the language of the will is as follows:

"I will and direct that my said wife shall have such power and authority hereunder, that it shall not be necessary for her to resort to a court for aid or instructions in the premises."

"Subject to the life estate given to my said wife, and subject to the powers over my property and estate, given to my wife during her life, I will and direct that upon the death of my said wife, Margaret Cherry, my estate shall be divided between by daughter, Cora Cherry, and my son, Percy Cherry, but I expressly will and direct that neither of my children shall have the power during the life of my said wife to alienate or encumber any of my estate so given to my wife for her life, or to interfere in any way with the management, handling or disposal thereof, or otherwise, during the life of my said wife."

WHITE HALL MAN TO BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral of J. Frank Culbertson to be Held This Afternoon—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Nov. 26.—Arrangements for the funeral of J. Frank Culbertson have been completed. Services will be held in the Christian church at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday, the discourse being delivered by the pastor, Rev. M. P. Pierson. Burial will be in the White Hall cemetery.

Mr. Culbertson died at 1:45 P. M., Saturday without regaining consciousness following the stroke of paralysis with which he was attacked about 6 P. M., the Thursday previous. He had retired to his room to prepare to attend church when attacked.

Mr. Culbertson was a member of an old and prominent White Hall family. His father was the late Samuel Culbertson, an ardent G. A. R. man, of whose family S. Edgar is the only survivor.

Our subject grew up in White Hall, born March 10, 1871, and has always been identified with the clay manufacturing business. His wife was formerly Miss Eva Baker, and they were married November 29, 1895, and she and their three children survive as follows: Mrs. Elmer Bishop, of Alton, and Miss Ethel at home, twins, and Harold also at home. There is one grandchild.

Mr. Culbertson was held in the very highest esteem as a citizen. He was a deacon in the Christian church and a member of the M. W. A.

One ex-service man in White Hall is stepping high, and it is not on account of the bonus either. It is Mr. James J. Egan, and he announces the arrival of the first child at his home on Tunison avenue, a son, who has been christened William Eugene a nine-pounder.

Mrs. Evans Freed from Female Weakness by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Michigan.—"I had female weakness with pains in my back, and I could not stand on my feet for any length of time. I was working in a factory but had to quit as I was too much on my feet. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, and I can hardly believe it myself that I am well. Oh, it is a grand thing to have your health! I feel well all the time and can go out like other women and not feel that awful torture. When I took your medicine first I thought it should cure after the first bottle, but I am glad my husband kept me at it. I have had nine bottles and now I am well."—Mrs. JENNY EVANS, 1604 Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

If you are suffering from displacements, irregularities, backache, nervousness or other forms of female weakness, you should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The reason is given in letters like these, and we have published thousands of them. You may expect that a medicine that has helped other women will help you. Try it.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY SISTER MARY

If you are not serving cranberry sauce or jelly with your meat for Thanksgiving dinner you may not have a cranberry pudding or pie?

Or perhaps you would "paint the lily," as it were, and serve pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

Or Indian pudding is a typical New England dish for Thanksgiving dinner.

If you have kept your dinner without frills why not late in the afternoon, when everyone is feeling more or less thirsty from much conversation and a heavy noon-day meal, serve a delicious 1923 cooler of some sort in the form of an ice or a frappe? You may prefer to serve this with the dinner in place of a heavy pudding.

A delicious drink to serve with the dinner is made of equal parts of cider and grape juice.

Cranberry Pudding

One cup cranberries, 1-2 cup butter and lard mixed, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 3 cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-2 cup milk, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Cream shortening and slowly add sugar. Add eggs well beaten. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add alternately with milk.

Add cranberries. Mix well and turn into a buttered mold. Steam three hours and serve with the following sauce:

Pudding Sauce

Two eggs (yolks), 1 cup powdered sugar, 1 cup whipped cream, 1-2 teaspoon almond extract, 1-2 teaspoon lemon extract.

Beat yolks of eggs with sugar until very light. Add whipped cream and flavoring and whip thoroughly.

Cranberry Pie

One cup cranberries, 3-4 cup raisins, 1 cup sugar, 3-4 cup water, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1-8 teaspoon aspic, 1-8 teaspoon ciner namon, 1-4 teaspoon salt, pastry.

Chop raisins and cranberries together. Mix sugar, spices, salt and cornstarch. Add fruit and mix with water. Cook, stirring constantly over the fire until mixture thickens. Turn into a pie dish lined with pastry. Cover with a top crust and bake in a hot oven.

A very attractive pie is made by cutting the pastry in strips and arranging them in a lattice-work fashion over the cranberries.

Indian Pudding

Four cups milk, 1-2 cup finely chopped suet, 4 eggs, 1 cup corn meal, 1 cup raisins, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Scald milk and when it begins to boil stir in meal. Let stand until cool. Add eggs well beaten, suet, raisins, molasses, sugar, salt and seasoning. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake three hours in a slow oven. Serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with vanilla.

Thanks to my friend

One cup cranberry puree, 1-2 cups sugar, 1 cup grated pineapple, 2 lemons, 3 oranges, 2 cups water, 1 cup whipped cream.

The cranberries should be cooked and forced through a puree strainer.

Grate rind from one lemon and two oranges. Add to water and sugar and boil eight minutes. Strain. Add orange and lemon juice, cranberry puree and grated pineapple. Turn into a mold and freeze in equal parts of ice and salt until "mushy." Add whipped cream and let stand an hour longer. If necessary, repack the freezer and let stand until needed.

JEFFERSON CO. HAS NEW MUNICIPALITY

Town of Nason, Organized in April Now Has Population of 3,000 People—Opened by Mining Corporation

NASON, Ill. (A. P.)—Youngest of the municipalities of the state, Nason, Ill., Jefferson county's new coal mining town, is growing so rapidly that officials of the Illinois Coal corporation predict a population of 3,000 within a year.

The town has sprung up since April of this year, when the Illinois Coal corporation started sinking two huge twin shafts, and has now 123 homes, with 40 more under construction and contracts let for 60 more.

One of the shafts, according to mine experts, will be the largest coal shaft in existence while the two will make the Nason mine the largest twin shaft mine in this country.

The smaller of the two shafts recently struck a vein of coal eight feet and ten inches thick at the 720 foot level. The other shaft has penetrated more than 660 feet, drillers said, and has already passed a vein of coal four feet thick.

Mining men who have examined the coal now being taken from the smaller shaft pronounce it "fine quality coal." Vice President Zook of the corporation declared that the field is large enough to be productive for at least 100 years. He says that drainage problems, encountered when the shafts were first started have been met satisfactorily.

The town is connected with Mount Vernon, Ill., by a recently laid railroad whose officials report that its business has been heavy to date.

A school has been established in the upper part of a business district building with 60 pupils enrolled.

Vice President Zook estimated that between 1,000 and 1,500 men will be employed in the mine when both shafts are in full operation. Mr. Zook said that the maximum capacity of the mine will be between 10,000 and 12,000 tons in eight hours, and that the equipment will be modern thruout. The miners are to be equipped with electric safety lamps protected by heavy glass covers as a precaution against explosions.

GERMAN MARKS NOT WANTED BY HOLDUPS

BERLIN.—(A. P.)—Holdup men in Berlin no disdain to take away marks from their victims. Max Weisse, who was recently held up in the Tiergarten district, was robbed of the money he carried in dollars and pounds sterling, but the holdup man gave the victim back his marks with a "thank you, we don't bother with those anymore."

A German who entered a street car carrying a large suitcase was asked for two fares by the conductor on the ground that he must pay for the case. "But I can't carry enough paper money for one fare without it," the passenger protested, as he produced several bundles of paper marks in small denominations from the case.

The conductor did not insist upon the extra fare.

On May 10, 1921, Mr. Meany said: "I have not had need of a kidney remedy since I recommended Doan's. I am glad to confirm my former statement for my belief in the curative powers of Doan's is greater than at that time."

HUGE STAMP SHIPMENT FOR CHICAGO OFFICE

Recently the largest requisition for high denomination stamps ever received from any postoffice in this country reached the Post Office Department from Chicago.

Exclusive of ones and twos the order totaled 60,000,000 stamps with a value of $5,589,000.00 and included one million 50c, one hundred thousand $1, four million 20c, twice as many 10c, three million of the 15c and two million of each of the 11c and 30c denominations. Other stamps of lower denomination were ordered in lots of five and six million each.

Since Chicago already has on hand stamps to the approximate value of those ordered and the requisition is designed only to cover the Christmas mailing period, indications point to an anticipated heavy parcel post mailing.

NINE BROTHERS WIN BASEBALL PENNANT FOR MICHIGAN TOWN

COLEMAN, Mich. (A. P.)—To write the lineup of the Coleman baseball team all a scorer is required to do is to put down "Menther" at the top of the column and then jot down eight "ditto" marks beneath.

The Coleman team is all Menther—nine brothers—each a six footer, and there are three others who can pinch hit if needed. Fred Menther, 79 years old, is the father of this baseball team that won its second consecutive district pennant this year. "Pa" Menther keeps his weather eye on the management of the club, although another son is in active charge. Mr. Menther did not miss a game during the past season, being on hand to see his boys capture 12 and lose three games played in the league that is made up of clubs from Clare, Beaverton, Gladwin, Rose Bush, Farewell and Coleman.

Father Menther is proud of his ball-playing sons. Mrs. Menther, mother of the nine players, three other sons and four daughters, says she doesn't know much about the game, but likes to see her boys play and win. Playing on Sundays, as has been the custom in the league, is much against her wishes, however. Another cause for worry is her fear that some of her sons may become "too good" on the home diamond and be lured to the cities by scouts from the big leagues. Mrs. Menther wants her family to remain here and work the 600 acres of farm land that occupies most of the entire family's working hours.

The age range of the brothers is 19 to 36 years. August Menther, the oldest player, is right fielder; Henry, the "baby," who is 19, plays second base and pitches when brother Joseph, pitcher and captain, needs relief on the mound.

The Coleman team roster is: Jason Menther, lf; Joseph, p; Edward, c; William, ss; Fred 2b; Floyd, 1b; Otto, cf; Henry, 2b; p; August, rf; and Frank, manager.

In case these cards do not reach you or for any reason you haven't one and want to invite a friend you may fill out a card afterward or at the door.

NEBRASKA IS JINX OF NOTRE DAME

Coach Dawson, Former Princeton
Star, Upsets Grid Dope—Henry
Schulte Has Developed Great
Lines for the Cornhuskers

BY BILLY EVANS
For two successive years Coach Fred Dawson of Nebraska has caused a lot of woe for Notre Dame and its great mentor, Knute Rockne.

Last year Nebraska gave the football world something to talk about in defeating Notre Dame. At the start of the 1922 season Nebraska was heralded as the "wonder team." Defeat by Syracuse robbed the Cornhuskers of much of their glory. Then a comeback was staged at the expense of Notre Dame.

This year Nebraska was defeated in the first game of the season by Illinois, 24 to 7. Then followed a scoreless tie with Kansas and a 7 to 7 draw with Missouri. Supporters of Nebraska were beginning to lose faith in Coach Dawson, some of the old grads were crying for a new deal.

Then came the game with the supposedly invincible Notre Dame eleven, conquerors of the Army, Princeton and Georgia Tech. Nebraska was given but little consideration. The 14 to 7 victory over Rockne's great team was the biggest upset of the year.

The old grads who were crying for Dawson's head a few weeks ago are now calling him the miracle coach of the west.

Who is Fred Dawson?
Go back to the football records of 1908, 1909 and 1910 and you will see the name of Dawson playing a prominent part in the deeds of the Princeton Tiger on the gridiron. He was a star half-back in his days at Old Nassau.

However, all of Nebraska's success must not be handed to Dawson. The Cornhuskers' success in recent years has been in a measure due to a great line. Henry Schulte, who was an All-American forward in his days at Michigan, is line coach under Dawson.

With Dawson handling the backs and directing play, and Schulte in charge of the line, you have two good reasons for Nebraska's football success.

MANY SAW ART EXHIBIT LAST WEEK

Eight hundred and eighty persons visited the Dr. David Strawn Art Home last week, one hundred and fifty more than was true last year when the collection of oil paintings was on exhibition. All the visitors seemed pleased with the paintings. The most encouraging feature of these fine art exhibits is the interest and growing intelligence of the school children both older and younger. The exhibit certainly has a refining influence and being free to all promotes by example public spirit and generosity.

Misses Lucile and Ethel Rutherford returned to the city yesterday morning after spending the week-end with their parents in Winchester.

COACH YOST NOT ANXIOUS TO MEET ILLINOIS IN 1924

Claims Michigan Should Not Meet More Than Four Strong Teams

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 26.—Michigan is not averse to playing six Western Conference football games next year provided two of them are with so-called weaker teams. Fielding H. Yost, director of athletics at the university said today. He was emphatic, however, in his assertion that Michigan's four big games in 1924 will be with Ohio State, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota—the same as this year.

Commenting upon a report that representatives of the student body of the University of Illinois had requested a game between Michigan and the Zupke eleven next year, Coach Yost said that to schedule an Illinois game would necessitate the displacement of one of the other four conference teams. This, he said, Michigan did not intend to do.

"Viewed on its mental and physical sides," the Michigan Mentor said, "Michigan should not meet more than four conference teams that ordinarily win a large percentage of their games."

The Wolverine schedule, Yost said, probably will be completed within the next fortnight.

DEMPSEY TO SPEND WEEK IN MOUNTAINS

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Nov. 26.—A life in the open is what Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, wanted and he got it today after he left this city for a week's hunting trip in the mountains of Northern New Mexico. The Manassa maunder will stalk deer, mountain lions and bears during his hunting expedition and, altho he hopes to bag some game, he said, even if he did not have any luck, he would have a lot of fun living outdoors.

No arrangements are underway for a fight with Wilks, the champion said, as no promoter seems willing to take up the burden of planning the battle.

TRANSLATIONS OFTEN BRING QUEER IDEAS

WASHINGTON, (A. P.)—"Harassment full of bugs, for a bachelor horse," was the true literal translation for a single-horse buggy harness which a Spanish translator used in an American exporter's advertisement according to the Department of Commerce. The department used that as an illustration of how faulty and incorrect translations of circulars and advertisements not only fail to convey the meaning intended, but frequently make a company ridiculous in the eyes of prospective purchasers.

Other translations have been as ridiculous. The department says. Vacuum cleaners have been made "cleansers of emptiness;" monkey wrenches "wrenches for monkey-cys," and iron washers, "machines to clean iron."

NEW YORK, Nov. 26—Stock
prices continued their upward movement today despite intermittent profit-taking and bear selling in most sections of the list.
Buying of investment railroad shares on the strength of current earnings and a resumption of pool operations in several specialties in anticipation of record holiday trade were the day's features.

United States Steel, Baldwin,
American Can and Studebaker generally recognized as the pivotal shares, all touched new highs on the current upswing after the early gains were materially reduced or cancelled before the close.

Sugar shares were heavily bought on reports that present consumption was reaching record figures and that preliminary estimates of next year's production showed little change from this year.

Davidson Chemical was again the most spectacular individual feature, 8 1/2 points higher at 7 1/2
after having sold slightly above that figure.

Steel shares were benefited by the optimistic forecast of Chairman Topping of Republic Steel, who declared that the volume of business for this season of the year was better than expected.

Call money opened at 4 1/2 percent but advanced to five just before the close. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged with business quiet.

A sharp rally of more than two cents in demand sterling to above 34 1/2 featured the foreign exchange market.

Most of the liberty issues of the United States government improved, the one exception being the third liberty 4 1/2 which declined 1-32 of a point.

WOMAN SUPERIOR TO MAN UNDER 25 YEARS

Have Advantage Up to That Age But Afterwards Male Sex Passes Them in Intelligence According to Statistics.

Tucson, Ariz., (AP)—Women under 25 years of age are more intelligent than men of the same age, but after the 25th year men gradually pass women and attain a higher mental efficiency, according to statistics compiled in the administrative and educational departments of the University of Arizona.

The university cites its local statistics to show that the average scholastic standing for women students was considerably above the general university average, while the average for men was lower than the general average of all persons enrolled. The standings were:

General university average: 1.66 per cent.
Women: 1.96.
Men: 1.50.

Professor Alva O. Neal, university registrar and professor of rural education, contends that high school and college girls usually show more aptitude for study than high school and college boys. A 14-year old high school girl, he says, is the mental equal of a boy of 16, in line with the condition that most women equal in intelligence men two years their senior until the women reach their 25th year.

Professor Neal attributes this to the longer period of infancy in men. Women mature more rapidly, he points out, but when men become developed completely they benefit by the increased preparation of the long adolescence. Thus men as adults attain more.

He sees another factor in women's lack of necessity for competition. From this point of view, they "have suffered from too much protection." In biology he explains, it is shown that protected animals, those that do not have to rely on their own process to meet adverse conditions, fail to reach the high state of development attained by those forging ahead single-handed and fighting past obstacles.

In the past, he recalls, women have led a sheltered life, and therefore men, having all opportunities, attained their supposed mental superiority. Today he sees conditions changing. With women entering the professions in continually greater numbers, competing with men in business, and "succeeding as well as men," he predicts that "men will have to step fast to maintain the standard of mental superiority over women after the age of maturity."

Eventually women may be the mental superior of men throughout life, the professor hazards.

I. C. STUDENTS PLAN NEAR EAST DINNER

The motion was made yesterday morning at Illinois college by the students of Academy Hall and Crampton Hall that they make next Sunday's dinner a "Near East" dinner. The idea is to have a dinner such as the people of the Near East always have and to donate the money ordinarily spent on Sunday dinner to the Near East Relief fund. The menu for the Near East dinner is sent out by the chef of the Waldorf-Astoria and costs four cents per person.

NEW GERMAN OIL SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE RUBS OUT RHEUMATISM

A remarkable new discovery of German Chemistry, called Buhler Oil, for the relief of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, is astonishing the medical world. This marvelous oil seems to kill rheumatic pains just as effectively as these other German pain killers—Novocain for painless dentistry and Aspirin for headache pains.

Rheumatism in very many cases is due to internal abscesses such as a blind pus pocket (in a tooth) which give off poisons, and which are carried in the blood to the joints and muscles. Buhler Oil when applied to the affected parts seems to quickly penetrate and be absorbed by the body tissue. Even in the most severe and stubborn cases almost instant relief has been obtained.

So remarkable have been the results from the use of Buhler Oil that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense it to rheumatic, gout and neuralgia sufferers in this city with a positive written guarantee to return the full purchase price of the first bottle if it does not bring wonderful relief. All sufferers should promptly take advantage of this guarantee. For sale at Armstrong Drug Co., Gilbert's Pharmacy, J. F. Shreve, Long's Pharmacy, Coover Drug Co. (adv.)

NATIONAL GUARD NOW LARGEST IN HISTORY

Total Strength Over 7,000 on November First—Will Still be Known as 33rd Division.

Springfield (AP)—Illinois today has more men enlisted in the national guard than at any other time during history, with the exception of times of emergency, according to Carlos E. Black, adjutant general, who is pushing organization to completion.

The Illinois National Guard had enrolled 491 officers and 7,015 men, a total of 7,506, up to November 1, and enlistment was proceeding rapidly in the units not yet completed, General Black said. The state had more men than this in the guard when the United States mobilized its troops on the Mexican border, and when the National guard was mobilized for the World War, but aside from those two emergencies the state has never before had such a large national guard.

The old Illinois National Guard, which, in common with the national guards of other states, fought in the great war, was automatically discharged from the state service August 5, 1917, when the National guards were made part of the National army. This left the country without a national guard when the war was over and the organization is now being rebuilt under the provisions of the National Defense act, as amended June 4, 1920.

Illinois has been allocated the 33rd division of infantry and rapid strides are being made toward filling its ranks. The division consists of two brigades of infantry, one in the northern and one in the southern part of the state and also one brigade of field artillery. In addition to the division troops there are also one tank company, engineers, cavalry, a signal corps company, anti-aircraft artillery and an ordnance company. Illinois also has the only Negro regiment in the United States that is officered throughout with Negroes, according to General Black.

The 6th infantry brigade, recruited in Chicago, includes the 131st and 132nd regiments. These regiments are completed and are federally recognized.

The 65th infantry brigade, located in the southern part of the state, consists of the 129th and 130th regiments. The 130th regiment is completely organized and federally recognized and the 129th is being completed. Two battalions of the negro infantry are located in Chicago, and one battalion is spread over the southern half of the state. These troops are completely organized and federally recognized.

The 58th field artillery consisting of the 122nd and the 124th regiments, has been completely organized in Chicago and is federally recognized. The brigade is armed with 75 mm. horse drawn guns. In addition to the 58th brigade the 123rd battalion of field artillery is located in Illinois. The brigade is armed with the big 155 mm. guns and is completely motorized. Battery A is located at Galesburg, while battery B, battalion headquarters and the headquarters detachment and combat train is located in Monmouth. This organization is completely organized and federally recognized. Illinois artillery quota is completed with the 202nd regiment of Coast artillery A-A which is located in Chicago. This regiment is armed with anti-aircraft guns. Its ranks have been filled and it is federally recognized. The 2nd squadron of the 106th cavalry is also federally recognized. The squadron headquarters, the headquarters detachment and troops F and G are located in Springfield while Troop E is in Urbana.

Illinois has one fully equipped and federally recognized tank company. This is the 33rd tank company located in Evanston. The first battalion of the 108th engineers and the 108th medical regiment are being organized at present in Chicago. One company of the former is completely organized and federally recognized, while officers for the latter have been appointed and assigned.

RADIO SETS FOR AIR MAIL PILOTS

Air mail pilots flying across the continent in the future will be accessible at all times to the instructions from the ground. Post Office Department experts having worked out a one-man sending and receiving radio set which will be installed in the coast-to-coast service.

The set, in which the receiver is under the pilot's helmet and the transmitter on his breast, will make it unnecessary for a radio operator to accompany the plane. Air mail service stations are placed on the route at 200 mile intervals, and the pilot with a 18-280 meter wave length would never be out of touch with a station.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Says-Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases

Yes: it's true—the world progresses.

All you have to do nowadays is to limber up that stiff, rusty knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspaper and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to jump when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease: They call this wonder working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

All druggists have a big supply of it and druggists everywhere report a big demand. (adv.)

TELEPHONE TALKS

Sometimes, when a number is asked for on the telephone, the operator reports that the number called does not answer.

Experience shows the operator is seldom mistaken. In the majority of cases the person called is absent or not near enough to hear the telephone bell. Sometimes he is just slow in answering.

"Don't answer" reports would be greatly reduced if subscribers would be prompt in answering when their bells ring.
